

Financial Literacy and Education Commission National Financial Education Network

As part of Taking Ownership of the Future: The National Strategy for Financial Literacy, the U.S. Office of Personnel Management and the Department of the Treasury invite you to the inaugural meeting of the National Financial Education Network on April 17, 2007 in Washington, DC.

The purpose of the National Financial Education Network is to create an open dialogue among associations, government officials, and individuals to advance financial education at the state and local level.

This conference will bring together representatives from different areas and levels of government across the nation to discuss various aspects of financial education that can be implemented within states, regions, and localities. The goal of the conference is to have participants leave with a better understanding of programs, ideas, and resources related to the field of financial education that they may use to better serve their state, region, or locality. By bringing a broad range of state and local officials and organizations together, participants will also have the opportunity to build valuable partnerships.

When: Tuesday, April 17, 2007 from 9:30 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.
